

Two for the Road WORKSHOPS

Wondering how and where to start building your network? Come learn about the 4 MUSTS of networking.

You've heard the phrase, "it's who you know." You've also heard how important it is to "build your network." Are you wondering how and where to start building your network? Or, are you a good networker and want to meet others to expand your current network? Having a network of people who are willing to help you is a powerful and priceless business tool. Your network is so much more than making a sale. Attend this session and we'll discuss: Where to start with networking/ Getting the most out of networking/Networking follow up/The four networking musts./Networking tips. Connecting people is what Kristy does and does well. Come learn to practice what she preaches.

Krist Rogers

Kristy Rogers is the Regional Executive Director of eWomenNetwork San Jose and co-founder of Women in Networking, and has years of experience connecting people and learning what makes powerful connections. Kristy recently launched her own business, KristyRogersConnects, dedicated to helping business people network, follow up, and show they care. If you haven't met Kristy yet, please make sure you do!" She wants to meet you. She was just named Managing Director of the Year 2006" by eWomenNetwork and recently crowned "The Royal Schmooser 2006" by the San Jose Silicon Valley Chamber of Commerce